CAUSE

On August 3, 2012, Sitton was sentenced by the Honorable Roger L. Hunt to 84-months imprisonment, followed by 60 months of supervised release for committing the offense of Brandishing a Firearm During a Crime of Violence, and Aiding and Abetting. On May 25, 2017 Sitton commenced his first term of supervised release in the District of Nevada. On July 12, 2018, Sitton's supervision was revoked and he was sentenced by the Honorable Judge James C. Mahan to nine months custody followed by 48 months supervised release. supervision for several months and after being arrested on the warrant, he appeared before the Court on September 4, 2019 for his initial appearance. At this hearing, Sitton was released with two additional conditions of supervision; specifically, placement in the Residential Re-entry Center (RRC) and Location Monitoring until his revocation hearing, which is currently set for October 22, 2019.

The United States Pretrial Services Office is currently incurring the costs for Sitton to reside at the halfway house while he is pending his revocation hearing; however, they will only be able to accommodate this arrangement until October 11, 2019. Currently, Sitton is unemployed, he has no financial or family support, and advised he will be homeless if he is unable to reside at the halfway house. This officer respectfully requests Sitton be allowed to reside at the RRC for a term of up to 90-days to address his housing situation until his revocation hearing date. Sitton was presented with the Probation Form 49, Waiver of Hearing to modify Conditions of Supervised Release which he signed. A copy has been attached for Your Honor's review.

The probation office would further request that Your Honor waive any subsistence fees while Sitton is residing at the halfway house.

Respectfully submitted,
